The partnership enables SIA loyalty programme members to earn KrisFlyer miles when travelling on Vistara flights, and redeem its flight tickets with their miles.

Similarly, Club Vistara members can earn and redeem

nership as well.

An interline arrangement refers to a pact to issue and accept tickets for flights that are operated by the partner airlines. When selling an inter-line ticket, the operating airline's own flight numbers are used.

"We are delighted to tomers. "We are confident that through Singapore Airlines and their sister airline SilkAir's well-connected network from India, we will be able to broaden our reach and strengthen the value proposition for Club Vistara members," Vistara Chief Executive Officer Phee Teik Yeoh said.

PTI ■ MUMBAI

India is not yet ready for full capital account convertibility of rupee as the country is an expanding economy and need stability on the external front, Reserve Bank deputy Governor H R Khan said.

"The pros and cons of full capital account openness is a contentious issue and in any case, we are not ready for it at this point of time," he said.

Khan said the backdrop for the foreign exchange market is provided by several factors following the Balance of Payment crisis India faced in 1991. RBI on Wednesday posted his speech delivered at the Finance Conclave 2015 of a management institute in Mumbai on January 17.

He said the Government has allowed full current account convertibility in 1994 and since then it is gradually making rupee convertible on capital account. The objective, he said, is to maintain orderliness in the
